

Karthik Fine Arts to inaugurate Sangam festival in Chennai

TNN / Updated: Dec 31, 2022, 09:28 IST

CHENNAI: The Karthik Fine Arts will inaugurate the Sangam festival, an art initiative and resource repository, curated by Bharatanatyam exponent and scholar Bala Devi Chandrashekar, on December 31.

The festival, which will take place at Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan in Mylapore is aimed at raising promotion and support for the arts community in the USA and India.

It will begin at 9am with a lec-dem on the Thanjavur Bani by Lakshmi Vishwanathan, followed by performances by Kathak exponent Vidushi Vidha Lal and Sheela Unnikrishnan of Sridevi Nrithyalaya.